

TUNISIA CASE SUMMARY - THREATENING MESSAGES

Jurisdiction: Tunisia

Prepared for: legal triage and evidence review

Date prepared: 02 May 2026

Person requesting help: Mariem Ben Ali

Relationship context: former intimate partner

Reported person: former partner

Location: Tunis, Tunisia

Key facts:

- Mariem reports repeated threatening messages from her former partner between 20 April 2026 and 30 April 2026.
- The messages include intimidation and pressure to meet in person.
- One message threatens to publish private photos if she refuses contact.
- Mariem saved screenshots with visible account name, date, time, and message text.
- She has not yet filed a police complaint.

Evidence available:

- Screenshots of threatening messages.
- Call log showing repeated missed calls.
- Account name and phone number linked to the sender.
- Copy of identity document.

Questions for review:

- Does Tunisia Organic Law No. 58 of 2017 apply to threats and technology-facilitated abuse?
- What urgent safety risks should be checked?
- What evidence should be preserved before speaking with a Tunisian lawyer or support service?